WESTFIELD, NJ – Hospitality veteran and entrepreneur Anthe Angelides, a proud Greek, has launched her first personal care travel kit collection, Sunchasers, for Oneiro. Formulated with clean and natural ingredients, Oneiro is the premiere curator of travel kits designed specifically for the climate of any vacation. Oneiro's luxurious self-care essentials are inspired by the Mediterranean lifestyle to nurture the body and spirit.

The Sunchasers kit includes five staple travel products, in the maximum allowable size for TSA-approval, protected in a versatile waterproof clutch for those always on-the-go.

Oneiro's debut collection, Sunchasers, is designed with love for hot, breezy, and humid climates. A combination of citrus, bergamot, and lemongrass scents calm and relax the senses. Shea butter, oat extract, and calendula leave skin and hair nourished, conditioned, and protected.

Shampoo: Cleanses with a biotin-rich formula that never strips or dries out hair. Citrus oils nourish the scalp down to the hair follicles, resulting in hydrated, soft locks that are full of body and shine.

Conditioner: Tames frizz while leaving hair weightless. Safflower oil hydrates while shea butter and coconut oil soothe and smooth hair. The result is effortlessly bouncy, shiny hair.

Body Wash: Soothes and refreshes, leaving skin feeling clean and hydrated. Made with calendula, a flower extract that helps stimulate collagen production, skin is conditioned, protected, and supple.

Body Milk: Made with pure essential oils and plant extracts, it nourishes and softens skin. A combination of orange, lemon, and bergamot oils layered with warm notes of sugarcane and rosemary leave skin supple and hydrated, while relaxing the senses.

Multi Mist Spray: Refreshes linens, revives surroundings, and even reinvigorates the body. Spray it on linens before bed for a refreshing, sensory-rich sleep. Carry it on-the-go to freshen up anywhere.

Waterproof Clutch: Transparent clutch holds all five products in a versatile design. Open flat to protect your products from germs or chemicals on any counter or snap closed to use as a purse, transport a wet bathing suit, or store makeup.

About Oneiro

Oneiro originates from ancient Greek mythology and translates into the word dream... make every vacation a dream by turning expected amenities into unexpected luxuries with their line of thoughtfully-curated personal care travel kits.

Each Oneiro kit is equipped with a shampoo, conditioner, body wash, body milk, and multi-mist spray to combat any climate. Oneiro's Clean Standards ensure products are formulated without harmful chemicals or ingredients. Oneiro uses sustainable operations and recyclable materials to help preserve the earth's precious land and sea. Bottles and tubes are made from a minimum of 30% post-consumer recycled plastic, most coming from plastic waste in the ocean. All products are made in the USA.

Look out for Oneiro's newest travel kits and nutrient lip balm launching later this year! For those who like to explore big cities, seek the snow, or blaze a trail, Oneiro has them covered.

About Anthe Angelides

Oneiro founder, Anthe Angelide, grew up on the enchanting and beautiful island of Rhodes, Greece. From her family-owned and operated hotels and exquisite villas to the local village hotspots, Anthe was immersed early on in the world of tourism and how to create exceptional hospitality experiences. Inspired by her homeland and the natural herbs, botanicals, and ingredients from the Mediterranean, Anthe designed a luxury personal care collection, free from chemicals and potentially harmful toxins, tailored to amplify the five-star stay experience.
