WINEMAKING:

This Shiraz was harvested at optimum ripeness, at around 13.5-14 Baume, with 20% whole bunches remaining in the fermentation. The fruit was kept at 10-15 degrees for two days before being allowed to warm and initiate fermentation. After 8 days on the skins and gentle daily hand plunging, the wine was pressed into 80% seasoned and 20% new French oak 500L puncheons, where it matured for 15 months. No fining or filtration was applied to this wine.
