For good and valuable consideration, the parties agree as follows:

50% Commission for each item.

Consignee will mail out checks the month following the sale. Checks not cashed within 60 days will automatically be canceled with loss to the Owner/Consignor.

Any and all articles accepted by Horseman's Exchange for the consignment hereunder shall remain the property of the Consignor until and unless Horseman's Exchange sells or donates said article to a third party. Consignor shall bear all risk of loss of any and all damage(s) to the consigned articles, caused by any casualty whatsoever, including but not limited to fire, flood, windstorm, or damage or loss from theft or negligence committed by any person. It is the sole responsibility of Consignor to maintain insurance coverage for any loss or casualty and said insurance coverage shall waive subrogation against Horseman's Exchange.

The undersigned agrees to pick up all consigned articles not sold within sixty (60) days of the date left with Consignee. Consignor is solely responsible to keep track of the Consignor Contract expiration date. Any articles remaining after sixty (60) days will be marked down at the discretion of the Consignor or donated to local equine charities at the discretion of Horseman's Exchange.

All articles consigned must be CLEAN and in USEABLE and SAFE condition and will be approved for consignment at the sole discretion of the Consignee. Consignor agrees to abide by policies and procedures outlined in the "Consignment Policies and Procedures" document.

I have read the above terms and agree to accept them as applicable to all articles I leave on consignment.
