

FurnitureToday

Delta Children launches new Low Twin Loft bed set

Group will be in stock and begin shipping this week

NEW YORK – Baby and youth furniture resource Delta Children has launched its Low Twin Loft bed which offers an open space beneath the sleep surface that doubles as a storage and play area.

The new twin bed is being sold exclusively on www.deltachildren.com for $259.99. It includes support slats to hold a twin mattress and supports up to 250 pounds. It is made with solid rubberwood and TSCA compliant engineered wood and comes in a non-toxic, cool gray finish that is both lead and phthalate free.

The set also includes a guardrail and a ladder. Coordinating tents with Batman, Harry Potter and Spider Man themes are sold separately.

The set first appeared on the Delta website last week and will be available to ship starting this week.