BEST UMBRELLA STROLLERS

REVIEW

Best Umbrella Stroller for Travel Lets You Be On-the-Go

Its extendable European style canopy protects your baby from the elements, which incidentally sports a pattern that is too cute for words! It also has a sun visor and 2 peek-a-boo windows for you to easily check on your little tot. There's an adjustable foot rest to accommodate the different position of your child for that tailor made comfort! And of course, the common 5 point harness is also present but this has a soft shoulder pads to keep your little one still comfortable while being secured on his or her seat.

When the day's done, the Atlas AL incorporates the classic and easy compact fold with auto-lock mechanism that makes it ready for storage in your trunk or in a tight space at home! with snap of your fingers! On other hand, few had slight inconvenience as you might need both hands and a foot to open this thing. Still, the Atlas AL is JPMA certified and meets or exceeds all ASTM and applicable CPSC standards to ensure that your baby is on good hands.

If you are not yet satisfied with these features, there are still plenty more reasons to love it! It has ergonomic handles that are comfy to touch and make pushing easy. It's made of high quality aluminum frame for durability and tougher built against wear and tear. Plus, the seat has memory foam that is basically the comfiest thing ever! Since memory foam follows the contour of the body, it keeps the spine aligned and makes you feel relaxed. So even if you have to stay with your little one out for long hours, they remain comfortable on their seats. Despite being unable to recline flat, it still has multi-position reclines. And there's a reflective piping so you can still see your baby while having that leisure walk at night.

This one is pretty adorable and affordable! This can be delivered to your home free of charge for less than $130. With a stellar rating of 4.5 out of 5, this is no doubt one of the best umbrella strollers for travel. Putting how much storage and pretty it looks aside, the Atlas AL packs with handy features that are worth your time and consideration. Let you and your baby finally have a reliable stroller for a cozy ride at last!

On a positive note, you won't have the dilemma on what design to choose since there's only one. Nevertheless, the Atlas AL looks stunning. After you take in its overall appearance, you turn it around then your jaw quite literally drops at the amount of storage it has. It can carry almost anything and everything for you. That's certainly how I felt when I saw this beauty!

It also has tons of storage space waiting for you. It has a mesh basket under the seat with generous size for the bag and baby essentials. While at the rear of its canopy has a bag or pouch for the parents to put in their keys or cash for quick access. There's also a cup or bottle holder on the side that you can truly use. While there's a good chance not all of your things can fit the bottom bin and the parent pouch. You can hang some of your bags or groceries on the handle just fine and it won't topple over easily.

And if the huge storage compartments aren't enough to make you jump for joy, the Atlas AL has all the perks of any great umbrella stroller in the market! J is for the Jeep brand made sure to keep the Atlas AL super compact which makes storing and just getting around town super easy and convenient. Definitely designed for parents that are almost always on the go, the Atlas AL keeps the safety and comfort of your baby in check as well.

J is for Jeep Brand Atlas AL Stroller

J is for Jeep Brand is an absolute dear that ensures a convenient and cozy ride. Okay, I'm not talking about cars here. But it does have wheels as well. We're still talking about strollers, and this time it's from J is for Jeep Brand. For those who doesn't know, J is for Jeep brand is actually in partnership with Delta Children. Which I'm pretty sure with Delta Children, they do nothing but deliver quality products. After all, they've been around for the longest time, founded since 1968. With such staying power, you can pretty much tell they're one of the experts. And when it comes to abundant storage space in an umbrella stroller, the J is for Jeep brand Atlas AL is your best pal.

When it comes to design, the J is for Jeep brand Atlas AL almost looks very modular and reminds one of more modern styles in fashion! It sports a warm gray tone with little blue line accents and patterned design inside the canopy. Its light blue gives off a cool vibe that perfectly complements its overall color. Who says only your clothes can be fashionable? Certainly, no one! The Atlas AL is definitely stylish, but on the down side, you only get 1 style. There are no other colors or designs to choose from.

On a positive note, you won't have the dilemma on what design to choose since there's only one. Nevertheless, the Atlas AL looks stunning. After you take in its overall appearance, you turn it around then your jaw quite literally drops at the amount of storage it has. It can carry almost anything and everything for you. That's certainly how I felt when I saw this beauty!
