On May 11, Delta Children will host an Operation Homefront Star-Spangled Baby® shower at Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst. Delta Children, in partnership with Operation Homefront, will hold the babies shower for 75 new and expecting military families, and it will feature a safe sleep demonstration and the distribution of gifts from Delta Children.

WHAT: Joseph Shamie, President of Delta Children, will present a safe sleep demonstration for new and expecting military families. Following the demonstration, a combination of cribs, changing tables and mattresses will be distributed to families in attendance. Congressman Tom MacArthur will also be in attendance to greet guests.

The product donation to Operation Homefront will be made in conjunction with Delivering Good.

WHEN: Friday, May 11, 2018, 12 p.m. to 2 p.m.

WHERE: 99th Readiness Division Auditorium, 5231 South Scott Plaza, Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst, NJ 08640

MEDIA: Media are welcome to attend. Event organizers and military families will be available for interviews coordinated by communications staff present. Please note that service members in uniform will not be available for interview.
