We all know Jeeps are a great ride, and this Jeep stroller by Delta Children is no exception. It functions like three strollers in one: Attach your car seat with the attached adaptor, set it up as a carriage-style stroller with your infant facing you, and bigger kids can sit upright either facing you or facing out. There's an adjustable footrest for baby and adjustable handle for you, plus a detachable parent organizer large enough to store diapers, bottles, snacks and more.

Available at deltachildren.com for $349.
