We know you've been hunting for the best toys for your kids this year. It's hard to keep up with all the L.O.L. Dolls and STEM toys and fancy bikes and Polly Pockets (hellz yeah, Polly is back, bitches!), so we've rounded up all the toys and gifts our own kids loved this year. Every gift we're recommending has been thoroughly vetted by the Scary Mommy Intern Team (aka, our children — we pay them in snacks and helping them make sure they make it to their Zoom period 3 class, and they get full family benefits, obv).

Delta Children Snuggle Foam Filled Chair, Kid Size

If a bean bag married a comfy chair, you'd get this awesome tween-sized chair. Perfect for virtual learning, playing video games or relaxing with a book.
