

The Ten Best Toys for 7 Year-Olds

7-year olds are tricky. Even more so when you're trying to find the right gift for one in a pinch. Which is why we've put together a no-fail guide to the top toys that are perfect for boys and girls. These crowd-pleasers include brand-new products like furReal's interactive Simba, as well as classic, nostalgia-drenched playthings like a woodworking kit or a Super Soaker. Basically, whatever said kid is into, we have you covered. Do you have a serious crafter on your hands? Go with the eraser-making set. Buying for a little techie? You'll want the coding robot. And what kid can resist a tent of their own? Trust us when we say, you're about to become the gift-giving hero to every 7-year-old you know.

03 Teepee Play Tent

Delta Teepee
play tent

$80

See On Amazon

Gift your kiddo with a little space of their own to hang out, read, or just take a nap (parents can dream, right?). The Delta Children's teepee is 67.25 inches tall and made of cotton canvas and sturdy wood poles. It's a great little portable play place and comes with its own storage bag so you can easily pack it up when it's not in use. Available styles include ballerina, space, pink ombre, and more. Best for ages 3 and up.