TURNING COLORS

Jackie McCartin

Oil paintings of Oregon Wine Country and the Willamette Valley

AUGUST 27 – SEPTEMBER 19, 2015

My “Turning Colors” show will feature new oil paintings that reflect the warm, rich, glowing colors of our N.W. summers and Fall in rural wine country. The long, hazy days filled with sun make the lush green landscapes explode with color. I hope to capture some of that atmosphere and freshness of the moment in my paintings with bold colors and expressive brushstrokes.

Come wander through the fields and vineyards and stay awhile!

Meet Jackie and view all of her new artwork during our artist reception August 27, from 5-7 p.m.

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Born and raised in the Midwest and Arizona, Jackie McCartin received a Bachelor of Fine Art from the University of Arizona, and has called Oregon home for the past 20 years. The vibrant, extreme colors of the Southwest along with the mystical, fleeting moods of the Northwest are reflected in her impressionistic landscape paintings.

ARTIST STATEMENT

“As an artist, oil is my medium of choice. The rich, fluid colors enhance the spontaneous brushstrokes I use to create a scene. I am drawn to that moment when one captures a place or feeling in their mind and stores it as a special memory. Color and light fascinate me and I use them to create a harmony of shadows, moods and forms. Hopefully, my vivid colors will be the trait you notice in my work. I want to evoke an emotional response from the viewer drawing them into the painting.”
