Description. First off yet to try gentech as I heard good things, but upon inspection I discovered abnormalities. Counted the tablets in both bottle of anavar, both total 57 tablets, not 60. Also note that in each one there is ONE tablet that is darker than the rest (dark orange & much more glossy), and another tablet which is lighter than the ... that's what i'm saying, real anavar at 50mg is largely enough for a -200lbs guy. All UGL sell their anavar in 50 or 10mg tabs, both of them are largely underdosed, some more then others. Dhacks was underdosed but at least there was some anavar in, some other only have winstrol. It has real potential for female weight loss and muscle development. Comprising of an active ingredient called Oxandrolone, which is utilised by both bodybuilders and athletes to reduced abdominal and visceral fat. The best time to use Anavar is during the cutting phase to help you burn fat fast whilst not losing any of the lean muscle mass. I use the gentech anavar 50 mg they come in 10s also but because I was taking 100mg per day I didn't want to take 10 single tabs, just wanted to take 2 as it seems less stressful and more cost effective. and it seems fine, good pumps and incredible strength and started to lose fat and have a dry look about me.

Digital eye strain is real. With all this extra screentime (online learning and mindlessly scrolling tiktok for hours) I've become a little more mindful of it. visite site
