Treat Yourself

Putting a gourmet spin on Easter treats, Park Hyatt's Executive Pastry Chef Callum Liddicoat is reimagining his famous hot cross buns into delicious doughnuts this year, stuffed with lashings of vanilla custard and brushed with a spiced citrus glaze. The chef's take on the Creme Egg is also returning, with two new flavours. Choose between hazelnut, dark chocolate and passionfruit or Earl Grey, bergamot, caramelised white chocolate and burnt vanilla which are sure to satiate any craving. www.hyattpantry.co.nz

Great Outdoors

Known for creating some of the highest-quality outdoor and poolside loungers on the market, Coast's new collection sees the brand take things to another level, again. Marking the first time that Coast's pieces have been purpose-made for floating in the pool (as well as for sitting beside it), the Nimbus collection combines new, cloud-filled technology with the brand's signature Sunbrella covers to offer unprecedented comfort, style, convenience and durability. www.coastnewzealand.com

In a bid to bring beautifully handmade glass works into everybody's homes, renowned artist Luke Jacomb has created this cast-glass Bee under his brand, Lukeke Design. Available in a range of colours, the Bee is a small, artistic detail that can be displayed singularly or as part of a cluster on a wall.
