A word almost synonymous with richness, the Jamewar collection melds the intricate weave — so popular with the royals and aristocrats of old — with a glorious array of inspirations. Softer greys and brightly coloured florals, arches to palace landscapes, satin to rustic linen — the luxuriance of Jamewar lies in the complex and sophisticated detail of each fabric in the collection. The palette stretches from more earthy, delicate colours to striking metallic overlays on more vibrant shades. The meticulously combined and perfectly balanced elements bring a level of sumptuousness to Jamewar.
