A celebration of the creative forces, Meraki is the lovechild of creativity and the jungle. Large shadows of palms trees, mixed with quirky elephant parades and zooming strokes of metallic light make for a delightful and narrative collection of fabrics. From smoothly flowing ombres to glamorous shines, beautiful bold outlines to the soft sheen of handpainted brushstrokes, Meraki invokes the feelings of soul, love, and creativity.

Delicate embroidery on fine linen, more rugged and textured warps for upholstery, and extra-soft drapes ideal for windows — this collection brings home the wilderness in bright, elegant forms.
