

Triangle Agency Third Party Publishing License

If you follow and adhere to these terms you are allowed to publish free or commercial material based upon and/or declaring compatibility with Triangle Agency without express permission from the designers or Haunted Table, LLC. This license covers games, game materials, and other entertainment where the game is being played to create the product (such as Actual Play podcasts.) Other adaptive media (including film, T.V., and novelizations) require explicit, separate permission from Haunted Table, LLC.

1. Art and text from our books may not be reused or translated, unless you have explicit permission from the designers or artists who created it or Haunted Table, LLC. You may use the names of organizations, creatures, locations, and entities of the game world as well as the Triangle Agency organization name.
 2. The mechanics and game rules of Triangle Agency may be reused and referenced freely.
 3. Your product cannot use the Triangle Agency logo or Haunted Table logo unless you have explicit permission from Haunted Table, LLC. You may use (but are not required to use) the Triangle Agency compatibility logo.
 4. You may not give the impression that your creation is an official Triangle Agency or Haunted Table, LLC product or that it is endorsed or sponsored by Haunted Table, LLC in any way. Haunted Table, LLC and the designers and artists of Triangle Agency take no responsibility for any legal claims against your product. Any legal disputes, controversies, or claims related to this license shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of The United States of America and settled in a US court.
 5. The following text must be included in the legal text, somewhere visible in the publication, and on the website or storefront where you promote the product:

What is a Third Party Publishing License?

This is what lets you make things in the Triangle Agency world without having to get approval from us each time.

Tabletop roleplaying games are about community, and Triangle Agency is no exception. We're excited to see what happens when people bring their own perspectives and skills to the game, and want to make sure those people can be compensated well for their time.

If you follow this license you don't owe us anything, but we'd love a copy so we can read and boost it! If you're an experienced designer interested in working with us directly, reach out to us at any stage of development by messaging team@hauntedtable.games and if we think it's a good fit, we'll see how we can help!

Styling Help

The two main fonts used in Triangle Agency are Avant Garde and Articulat CF. Avant Garde is an old font with many (basically identical) variants available for license in lots of places online. Articulat CF is created by Connary Fagen, whose work you can find at connary.com.

Both fonts are also available as Adobe fonts. If you're looking for a free alternative, the Google Fonts Roboto and Poppins have a similar feel (and are what we use on our Itch.io pages.)

What if I'm using similar/derivative/inspired mechanics? Do I need to credit you?

In our opinion, this is part of the process of making any kind of art. So, no. As long as you aren't using our direct copyrighted material (meaning you aren't plagiarizing our work by taking or paraphrasing our words) you don't need to credit us directly. But if you're worried enough about it to be unsure, it's nice to give us a nod!
