Private Training - Common Services

Initial Two Part Consultation: $325

Extended Consultation (additional dog): $150

Our consultations are taught in two one hour appointments. The first appointment is done virtually with our Canine Behavior consultant. In this session we will do some deep dive information gathering, an initial evaluation and expectations for the case, collaboration on an outline for the training plan, etc. Due to all the great content in the first session, for the in person assessment, we are able to go in with a custom plan based on your case. We'll be evaluating the dog on key aspects based on their case. Typically we on board 2-3 protocols for clients to start working on. Protocols can be more management oriented in the beginning depending on the severity and needs of the case. We work hard to take into consideration the needs of both sides of the leash

Follow-up sessions

Individual Session Rate: $150

4 Session package: $570

8 Session Package: $1080

We commonly recommend a follow up session 1-2 weeks after the last consultation session. Training needs vary from case to case on a variety of factors. During the consultation, we will help guide you on the pros and cons of different routes you could go and make unique recommendations.

The above services also include taxes and fees, travel time up to 30 minutes to and from the session location (total of 1 hour), mileage and vehicle wear and tear reimbursement for the trainer, and email support.

Intensive Training Programs

In Person Day Training Services - Let us do the heavy lifting!

This service is great for some cases, especially; dogs barking, lunging or displaying various leash reactivity type behaviors, dogs who feel stranger danger, obedience heavy cases, clients who have a hard time finding time for training, clients who are looking for physical support and a variety of other cases!

How it works:

- Remote setup meeting to review your plan (Included with deposit)
- Behind the scenes, your training team puts together a detailed, custom training plan to send out to you for review up front and to act as a guide as we move through the program (Included with deposit)
- Three times a week your dog trainer will come to your home (or other agreed upon location) and work 1-on-1 with your dog(s), owners are always welcome to sit in on these but that's not required!
- Once a week they work with your family and the dog(s) to transition over what was taught that week
- Weekly notes outlining what was taught with steps to help transition skills to you
- Access to select webinars determined by your training team to support your training plan
- Email support during package and afterwards
- Live adjustments to the training plan to ensure we're meeting the dog(s) where they are
- Includes standard 30 minutes traveling to and from session location
- Excursions available!

Finn

Standard Four Week Plan: $2,310

(Includes 16 1hr sessions, Weekly Notes, 2-3 webinars and creation of a custom plan)

Remote Day Training Services - Let us guide you!

This program is great for those cases needing intensive support for Cooperative Care, Relationship Building, Separation Anxiety, out of area clients, dogs who have issues with strangers but there are more pressing training needs and other cases that benefit from working with the dog in a more natural life setting.

How it works:

- Remote setup meeting to review your plan (Included with deposit)
- Behind the scenes, your training team puts together a detailed, custom training plan to send out to you for review up front and to act as a guide as we move through the program (Included with deposit)
- Virtually meet with your dog trainer and work 1-on-1 with your dog(s)
- Once a week every other week there will be a longer session to on board larger concepts
- Weekly notes outlining what was taught with steps to help transition skills to you
- Access to select webinars determined by your training team to support your training plan
- Email support during package and afterwards
- Live adjustments to the training plan to ensure we're meeting the dog(s) and you where they are
- Use Google Meets for sessions

Standard Four Week Plan: $1,375

(Includes 14 30-minute sessions and 2 1-hr sessions, Weekly Notes, 2-3 Webinars and creation of a custom plan)

Day Training Deposit and Add-on Services

All of this training is based on your or the dog's individual needs, goals and nuances of the case. This is a great way to have training 'jumpstarted' for you. Not all cases are appropriate for day training, your trainer can help you decide if this is appropriate for your case after a consultation or during the case at any point. Clients have the ability to add on weeks to the day training plan or additional services, we only schedule them out one month at a time.

$150 deposit required - we will create a custom plan for you and your dog(s), this nonrefundable deposit goes towards the cost of your day training plan. Day training for behavior cases starts at 1 month standard, shorter or longer plans available upon trainer and behavior consultant approval.

Common Day training Add-on services (Not limited to):

Excursions: Included or price based on current travel fee, location dependant.

On-Demand Webinars - $25

On-Demand webinars are available on our website here or email us at bark@daackpack.com for access and an invoice! Click the blue word, select the webinar you are interested in and we will email you an invite 48 hours before the scheduled live event. If access is revoked for any reason, clients will receive a 30 day notice. Webinars are a wonderful tool to add in supplemental training that is rewatchable, especially for common subjects we could all benefit from like understanding body language better. Our webinars were created from scratch, in house to meet the common needs we see in our clients.

Webinars Available on Demand:

Separation Anxiety 101, How to Speak Dog, How to Speak Dog - Behavior Edition, Brain Games - Impulse Control, Brain Games - Enrichment for Your Dog, Leash Skills 101, Say Please

Canine Fitness Evaluation And Write Up ($89)

Canine Fitness can be used for a variety of purposes, but the main goal is prevention. Just like with people, keeping the body moving has numerous health benefits. Our evaluations are here to help you start that fitness journey. Whether your goals are to help your pup lose weight or to find a new way to exercise their bodies and minds, Canine Fitness is here to help.

(Bowie)

A Fitness Evaluation serves as a way to assess where your dog's physical conditioning is at the moment of evaluation. This evaluation can be used to help create simple recommendations for physical exercises. This will not replace the recommendation of your Veterinarian and should be used to help create communication with your Veterinarian about your dog's physical fitness and limitations.

What's Included:

- 30 minute virtual assessment
- Trainer will give verbal assessment in meeting
- Explanation of the Visual Analog Scale (VAS), used to numerically describe the amount of effort the dog needs to complete a task.
- Trainer will send over recommended exercises breakdowns and frequency of exercise, and any additional recommendations
- Session will be recorded.

Misc Support

- Travel Fee - $20 per 10 minutes of total extra driving. This fee covers staff payroll, gas and vehicle wear and tear that is incurred through extra traveling outside of the 30 minutes of travel both to and from that we include in cost of service
- Training hourly rate - $130-$150 depending on the current training plan
- Administrative support - Starting at $50, depending on what kind of work needs to be done. Common administrative work to support clients is typically $50 an hour. Hourly rates for projects can differ based on who needs to do the work and the extent of the project.
- Phone Support - This scheduled call is for active clients that want more than email support between sessions. (30 minute call: $25)
