

Uterus Canvas
By: Fire and Iris Designs

Uterus Canvas
By Fire and Iris

All designs and content are the property of Fire and Iris Designs, LLC.
You may not distribute this content or sell items base on this content

Uterus Canvas

General Information:

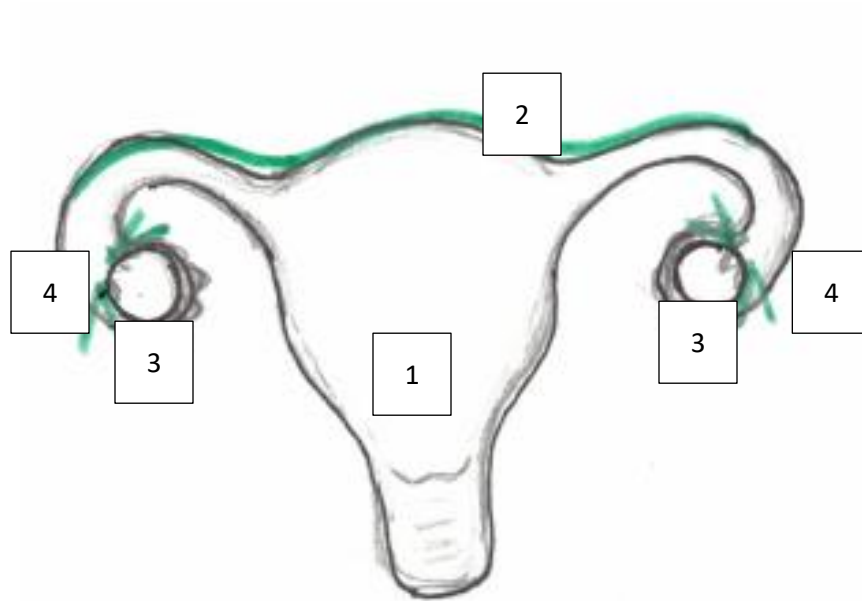

This project is meant to be a fun, low-stress, and budget friendly project. This guide is meant to provide a little inspiration and show you how I completed my project. For how-to videos on the stitches I used in this project, check out the videos on my Instagram page @fire.and.iris, or our website. However, please feel free to use whatever fibers, and stitch the project in any way you see fit!

Supplies:

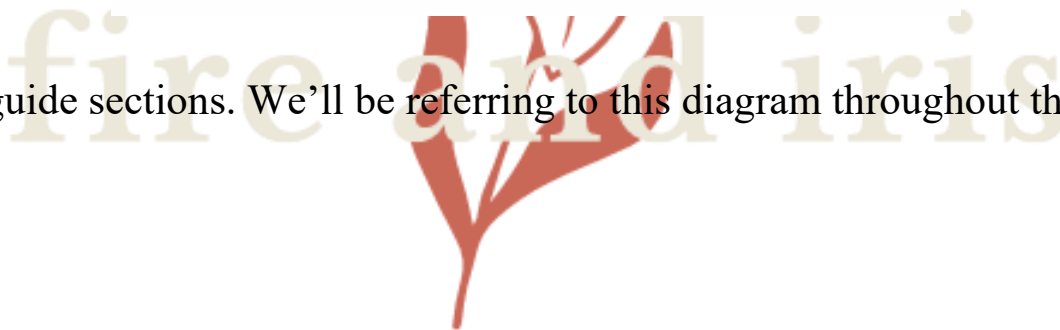

- 18 Mesh Canvas (included)
- #22 Tapestry Needle (included)
- Thread Suggestions:
 - Painted portion of the Uterus (Step 1)
 - Vineyard Silk Paradise Pale
 - Vine Stitch/Chain Stitch (greenery – Step 2 & 4)
 - Vineyard Silk Poison Green
 - Rose Stitch (large flower – Step 3)
 - Vineyard Paradise
 - French knots (Step 5)
 - Vineyard Silk Zinfandel
 - Vineyard Silk Mint
 - Vineyard Silk Nautical
 - Vineyard Silk Paradise

Uterus Canvas

Stitch guide sections. We'll be referring to this diagram throughout the guide.

Step 1: Stitch the bottom (painted) portion in tent stitches or T-stitch

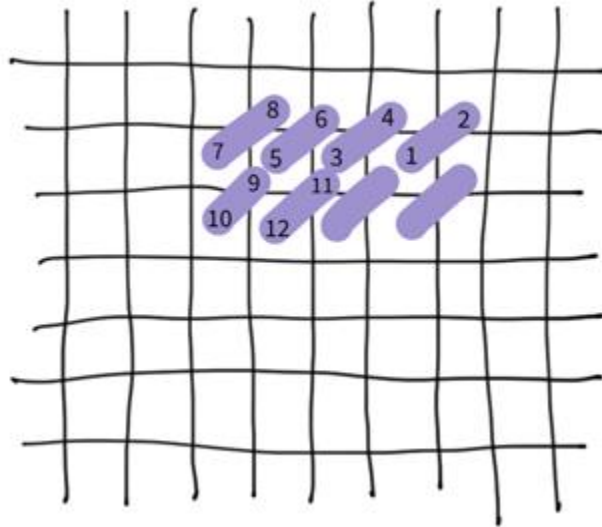

Diagram: Continental Stitch

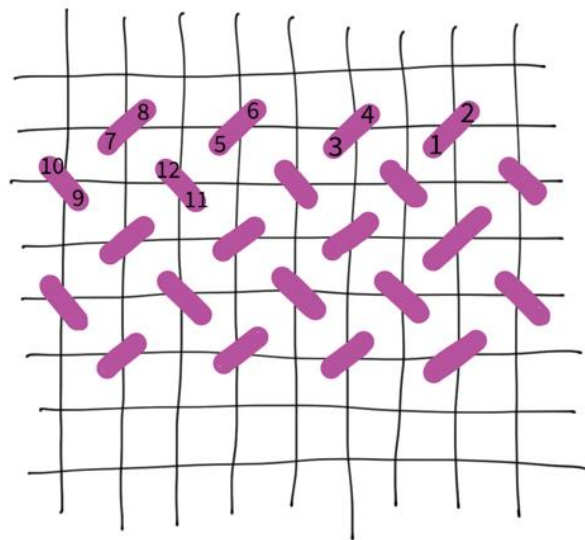

Diagram: T- stitch

Step 2: Lay down the vines/greenery. This can be used with the vine (feather) stitch or a chain stitch. (This is depicted with the green line in the diagram on pg3)

Diagram: Vine Stitch

Step 3: Stitch the Rose stitch (or the larger floral). (This is depicted with the circles in the diagram on pg3)

Diagram: Part 1 of the Rose Stitch

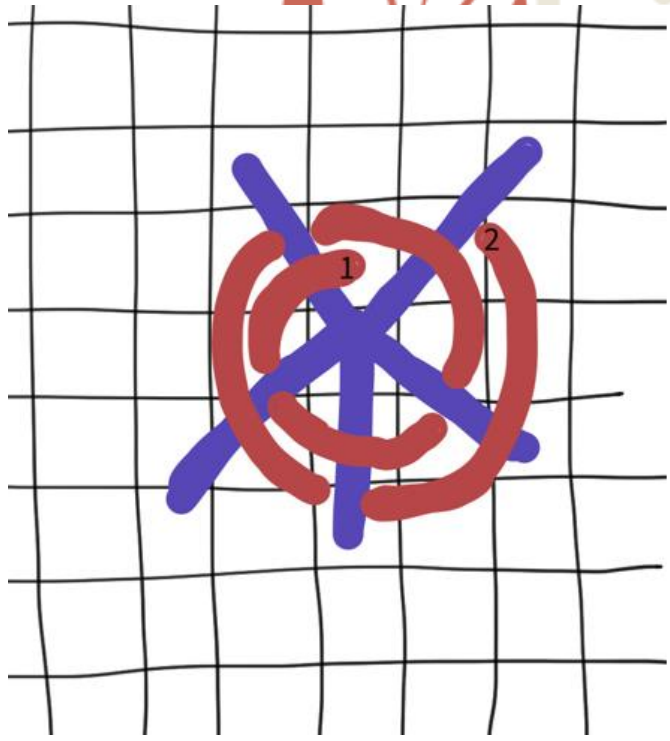

Diagram: Part 2 of the Rose Stitch

Step 4: Stitch the greenery around the rose stitch. This can be done in the single chain stitch. (This is depicted with the green “V”s in the diagram on pg3.)

Diagram: Single Chain Stitch

Step 5: Fill in with French knots (not depicted)