

HEALING ESSENCES FROM THE HEART OF NATURE®

April 2016 Specials

Research Gem Elixirs

We are living in exciting times! Our current political, economic and social structures are undergoing intense upheaval and change. As co-creators we are being challenged to sustain our vision of the kind of world we want to create and this can often be difficult and exhausting.

Gem Elixirs can help us regain our strength and stability so we can maintain and implement our positive co-creative vision for the future. With their help we can create strong energetic boundaries that will enable us to respond to events rather than react to them, and to build up our reserves of energy rather than always being on the edge of tiredness and fatigue.

For the month of April we are offering a 25% discount on each of our 28 Research Gem Elixirs. You will receive an even larger discount if you purchase them all together as a kit.
