Beyond Words enhances your ability to express yourself, both verbally and non-verbally. It assists in the exchange and flow of information and ideas from one person to another with the intention of shared understanding. It can also be used to help you prepare for public speaking engagements or performances, teaching classes or when you have the desire to participate fully in discussions and debates.

Easy Learning formula facilitates all aspects of the learning process for both children and adults. It strengthens our focus so we can pay attention without being distracted, increases our ability to process and integrate information, and improves our capacity to allow higher frequencies of thought into our learning processes. Use while studying and preparing for tests and exams, and for increasing the retention of information from reading and listening to lectures.

Citrine gem elixir promotes mental clarity and the ability to concentrate. This essence helps us synchronize the mental body with the earth, so it can return to its proper alignment and the result is increased calm and clarity.

Peridot provides support and protection for any new cycle of growth or experience. It stabilizes the heart and subtle bodies during the incubation period of new ideas and creative projects. Its helps us feel safe and secure when we are challenged to move beyond or outside of our usual safety zone into new areas of life.

Sticky Geranium is an ideal essence when one feels caught in a web of procrastination. Its vibrant and catalytic energy promotes decisive and focused action. It enables us to move more easily to the next level of an experience, whether it be writing a thesis, or making a stronger commitment to getting through any learning program, with clarity, focus, and a sense of order.

Tamarack helps us maintain a conscious, grounded connection with the source of our own individuality. Its vibration enhances our awareness of who we are and strengthens the knowing of our true selves, our unique abilities, and what we can do.

"AMAZING!!! I just went in and browsed the Living Book and it is brilliant!! The pictures, backlighted as they are on a screen, bring forth their healing power almost as if we were with the plants. Thank you, Steve Johnson, for your precision and dedication. This is a most excellent offering, and for those who have not signed up yet, I tell you it is priceless!!"
