

HEALING ESSENCES FROM THE HEART OF NATURE®

February 2016 Specials

Celebrating Love and Deepening in Intimacy

February is the month for celebrating love and opening to greater intimacy. The following essences can help us to release recurring patterns of inflexibility, conditional loving, reactive communication and the pain of the past. They are valuable in the expansion of our experience of giving and receiving, and they assist us as we deepen in intimacy and in harmony with ourselves and others. Explore what you want to create and enhance with regard to your relationship then vitalize and strengthen your intentions by making an essence potion for you and your beloved. Use the drops in your cooking and in your bath, or make a spray and spritz it around your bedroom.

Beyond Words enhances your ability to express yourself. It assists in the exchange and flow of information and ideas from one person to another with the intention of shared understanding. Whether the goal is heart-to-heart sharing in relationships or inspired public speaking, this formula will improve your ability to think and articulate from both the mind and heart.

Chrysocolla releases tension and armoring around giving and receiving love. It also softens, opens and expands the inner dimensions of the heart chakra and increases flexibility in the heart, mind and body to allow a stronger vibration of love to flow through us to others.

Chrysocolla

Green Fairy Orchid

Green Fairy Orchid is for those who use defensiveness as a way to stay safe. They crave connection but find it difficult to communicate this desire through the heart. This essence brings a very strong energy of universal love to the heart which helps us release old conflicts and open to new levels of connection with ourselves and each other.

Pale Corydalis

Pale Corydalis helps those who hold back in relationships because of a fear of losing themselves. It helps us develop a stronger sense of ourselves so we can better understand who we are and where we stand in our relationships with others. This essence also helps us see how all of our relationships are catalysts for our spiritual growth.

Pasque Flower

Pasque Flower helps us learn how to create and maintain a sense of security through functional energy boundaries instead of becoming irritated when someone comes too close, or makes contact in a way we don't like. This essence helps us feel respected, appreciated and protected at the same time, and helps us maintain our deepest sense of personal identity in all situations.

Rose Quartz

Rose Quartz strengthens and stabilizes our hearts so we can let more love into our lives. As we allow the flow of loving energy to increase, the defensive energies we used in the past to protect our hearts are gently cleared away. This essence brings the realization that these defenses are no longer needed because the strongest protection we can have is an open heart.
