Well known and respected Flower Essence Practitioner, Ruth Toledo-Altschuler, had this to say: "AMAZING!!! I just went in and browsed the Living Book and it is brilliant!! The pictures, backlighted as they are on a screen, bring forth their healing power almost as if we were with the plants. Thank you, Steve Johnson, for your precision and dedication. This is a most excellent offering, and for those who have not signed up yet, I tell you it is priceless!!"

Forget-Me-Not addresses the sensation of being separated from our spiritual and creative Source. This sense of separation is created by feelings of fear and guilt, and the pain from past experiences, that accumulate in the subconscious mind. The Forget-Me-Not essence opens a vibrational pathway to the subconscious mind that allows these energies to flow to the heart, where they can be released creatively and compassionately. It opens us to an awareness that strengthens our understanding of who we really are by restoring our sense of innocence, freeing us to create our lives with a deeper respect for ourselves, for others, and for the planet Earth.

Labrador Tea helps us move from an unbalanced, transitional state to a centered, energized one. This essence is particularly helpful for those of us who throughout our lives have attempted to balance one extreme with another such as overwork and the habitual use of addictive substances such as coffee, tobacco, and alcohol. This essence brings us back to center so that we are free and no longer need these substances to maintain our balance, and until we arrive at a place where using them actually makes us feel worse instead of better.

Liard Hot Springs holds the original archetype of innocence. As we enter and relax into the calming vibrations of this essence, we are cleansed of layer after layer of the energetic grit and grime we have collected during our lifetimes on this planet. This essence can help us come to an awareness of innocence regardless of our current levels of self-blame and condemnation. This essence is capable of completely clearing these kinds of ancient patterns from our energy fields, minds, and emotions, so that we can enter into a place where everything is possible.

Mountain Wormwood works with the qualities of forgiveness and resolution. The first step in resolving these old wounds is to relax and release the reactive energy we are holding around them. The gift of resolution is that as we eliminate these 'worms of discontent' that have been eroding our peace of mind, clear out our past resentments, and allow all of our judgments to dissolve, we get all of this energy to back. As we focus on love, compassion, and forgiveness, healing occurs. We are then able to bring all of our relationships into balance, and live freely and fully in the present moment.

Rose/Smoky Quartz synchronizes the heart with the Earth's vibration and with the frequency of love as it helps us move energy from shadow to acceptance. It facilitates the process of clearing and releasing dense energy such as shame and guilt from the heart and the body through grounding, self-acceptance and an awareness of Divine protection.

Tundra Twayblade specifically addresses the human tendency to suppress the pain and other difficult emotions that can result from an experience of abuse. Tundra Twayblade helps us reverse this situation by opening our hearts to a laser like quality of Unconditional Love. As we accept this love into our cells, an alchemical transformation occurs, and we are forever free from the abusive experience.
