Springtime Clutter and Space Clearing

Spring is a time of new beginnings. In the Northern Rockies, the earth is slowly waking up, the birds are coming back, and the days are getting longer. Its a great time to clear out the winter cobwebs, sort through those stacks of magazines, and move whatever we aren't using out of our living and working spaces.

We have been preparing our popular Sacred Space Sprays and offering hydrosols and oils specifically for the purpose of Space Clearing and Clutter Clearing for over 15 years. These special products help us evolve from a position of being at the mercy of our surroundings to having a positive effect on them. Our vision is to help people create clear and vibrant living and working environments which will benefit everyone who enters them. The apartments, houses and buildings in which we live and work can become beacons of light that radiate out and positively transform our neighborhoods, cities, countries and the world.

Sacred Space Sprays

Purification: Use this spray to cleanse and purify your home and work environments and your personal energy field. Before you start clearing clutter, spray Purification in the room, on yourself, and on the items you need to sort through. Then wait a few hours before starting the sorting process. You will be amazed at how much easier it goes!

Calling All Angels: An excellent invocation spray, Calling All Angels provides support from all levels of creation and opens us to a more profound relationship with angelic love and support. Use it to bring a very sacred and peaceful energy into your space after it has been cleared. This is also a great spray for ongoing use in meditation and treatment rooms, yoga studios and nurseries.

Guardian: This spray helps us claim our energetic space, maintain our grounding, and feel the protection of strong, healthy boundaries. Use it to invoke the energies of safety and protection into a space, and to seal the space after a clearing has been completed. In Clutter Clearing, use Guardian to strengthen your boundaries so you can identify more with your purpose and less with the items you are attempting to move on. This is especially important with stuff that has been inherited or gifted.

Lighten Up: This spray can be used when you want to uplift, revitalize, and energize a space. In Space Clearing it removes blockages that are restricting the flow of light and energy, helping the space become more 'energy efficient'. Good for rooms lacking natural light, hospitals and elder care facilities, and anywhere there has been a history of depression.

African Wild Sage: This will be the most powerful tool in your Space Clearing Kit. It has a very strong capacity to clear any kind of non-serving energy from a room. It is also effective in clearing residual odors that are "stuck" in the space, such as cigarette smoke and those that are left from cooking certain foods. This essential oil, which comes from the Kenya, can also be used during the invocation step of the Space Clearing process to bring in increased clarity and energy flow, and to support the creation of new boundaries in the space.

Frankincense Hydrosol: Sourced from Oman, this is a very versatile space clearing tool that has the capacity to cut through very old predecessor energy, as well as energy blockages affecting any of the elements (air, earth, fire, or water). If you are going to use this hydrosol for space clearing, you don't need much. Try using just four sprays for an entire room: once in each corner and once in the middle of the room. The effect is gradual, very expansive, and at the same time very grounding.

Sweetgrass Hydrosol: This hydrosol, sourced from the boreal forests of Alberta, Canada, works by clearing a pathway between the spiritual and physical dimensions so that its benevolent blessings of light can be received in the deepest way possible. Therefore, it excels as both a clearing and invocation spray. Use it to 'sweep up' any residual energy left from past activities, and to bring fresh new energy into a space once it has been cleared. Its wonderful scent lingers for quite a long time.

White Sage Hydrosol: This is prepared from the desert sage (growing in the Southwest U.S.) that has been used by Native Americans and others for rituals, smudging, and healing as far back as traditions go. It is very immediate in its effect, and in most cases very little of it is needed. Its action is similar to smudging with sage, but without the smoke and burning embers, and much more concentrated.

Visit our online store and fill your shopping cart with these amazing deals. You will also find many other products to enhance, heal and enliven your lives.

NOTE - The shelf lives of hydrosols differ and as this is a newly emerging field of vibrational healing, information is still coming in. I have stored shrink-wrapped bottles of the Sweetgrass Hydrosol for over a year with no problems, but once opened, the bottle should be used up within 6 months. In any case, always store the hydrosol in a cool dark place.
