

HEALING ESSENCES FROM THE HEART OF NATURE

Clear and Energize your Space with Sacred Space Sprays and Hydrosols

Staying at home has provided us all with the opportunity for cleaning and de-cluttering, but we haven't all been able to take advantage of the circumstances. Don't worry, that clutter staring you in the face doesn't have to be daunting!

Clearing can be done on a physical level, by getting rid of clutter and reorganizing to make more space in your room or house. It can also be done on an energetic level, by purifying unhealthy, non-serving or disturbing energy from a particular space. Energetic Space Clearing can help us on our healing journey. Working with the energy of the physical spaces we inhabit enhances the healing work we have been doing. This is the gift of reciprocity. The more we work on the inner level, the more this is reflected in our physical space. And the more we work on the outer level, the easier it will be to do the inner work.

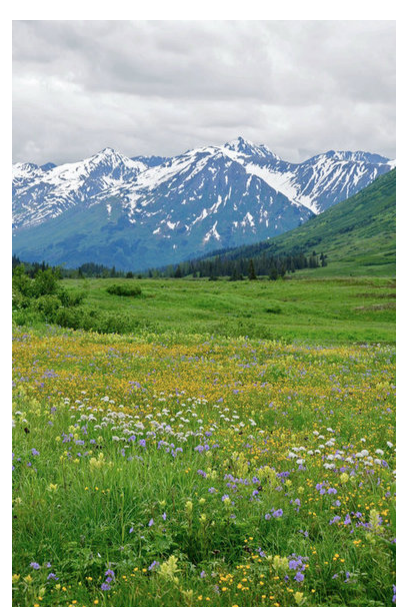

The quality of the energy in our homes, workplaces and any place we spend considerable time, impacts us in numerous ways. If there are unpleasant or disturbing vibrations in the spaces we inhabit, it may be more difficult to live and function well. We all want our living spaces to welcome us with a sense of comfort and serenity. We want to dwell in spaces that nurture us on every level, where we feel vibrant and alive.

If you are wondering whether your home would benefit from Space Clearing, ask yourself these questions:

- Does your home embrace you with comfort and balance?
- Is it a place of warmth and self-expression, a home for your soul?
- Does your home energize, enrich and enhance your quality of life?
- Is the amount of creative expression in your life right now in harmony with your desires?
- Is your workspace rewarding and fulfilling, a place you want to be?

Consider Space Clearing when:

- There is a sensation of heaviness in your dwelling -- it just doesn't feel right.
- Family members are often involved in arguments, conflicts and power struggles.
- Traumatic experiences such as death, illness, addiction, depression, violence, and abuse have taken place in the dwelling.
- You are going through major life transitions and want your home to nurture and support you through the process.
- You tend to accumulate clutter and you feel disorganized and stressed because you can't quickly find the things you need.
- Family members are not sleeping well and are always tired.

Our Sacred Space Sprays make Space Clearing easy. They are made from Alaskan Flower, Gem and Environmental Essences. Carefully selected high-quality essential oils have been added to enhance the energetic effect of the essences. The Alaskan Essences are composed of pure, environmentally balanced energy. When you introduce balanced energy into a space where there is imbalance or stagnation, the balanced elemental energy from nature will remind the energy in the space how to move back into balance. Energy will always seek balance, even in the most severe instances.

Space Clearing Steps

There are four Steps to Space Clearing. It is not only about clearing and cleansing, the 'invocation' is crucial to invite the positive energy you desire.

1. Preparation: preparing yourself and the space to be cleared. Set your intention.
2. Purification: moving out or changing the state of any unwanted or non-serving energy. Use Purification Space Clearing Spray, Frankincense or Sweetgrass hydrosol.
3. Invocation: inviting the energy that you want to have in the space. Use the soothing Calling all Angels or uplifting Lighten Up Sprays. Sweetgrass hydrosol can also be used here.
4. Preservation: sealing the space and the work you have done. Use Guardian Spray.

Tip: You can also use other sprays for the invocation process, like Go-Create Abundance Spray or Beyond Words Communication Spray! See all our sprays HERE.
