

NATURE'S ALCHEMY[®]

Pure Essential Oils

*Combining ancient wisdom and modern science
to delight the senses...*

For centuries, botanical essential oils have been used to anoint the body, relax the senses as you drift off to sleep, or turn a simple bath into a rejuvenating or relaxing experience. These highly concentrated, aromatic oils are found in herbs, flowers, grasses, fruits, and trees. Nature's Alchemy Essential Oils is a complete line of pure, steam distilled or cold pressed, botanical oils. They can be dissolved in alcohol or used in a diffuser to provide a pure scent to your surroundings, or added to skin care products to become a unique part of your personal care regimen.

Our experts at Nature's Alchemy delight in seeking out the rarest desert plants or most exotic tropical foliage to create a rich variety of essential oils. So indulge in a perfumed lotion, try a scented oil massage, or rejuvenate with a refreshing bath. Your mind, body, and spirit will thank you.

WHAT ARE ESSENTIAL OILS?

Essential oils are dynamic substances extracted from plant flowers, seeds, leaves, roots, fruit, and twigs. The essential oil in its botanical state possesses a complexity that is difficult to reproduce. Some oils contain substances that do not occur anywhere else in nature. Many of the oils have been traditionally used for fragrances, promoting well-being, as well as used in worship to promote a state of relaxation or spiritual awareness.

Extracting these oils (a very small part of the entire plant) is a painstaking, meticulous process. The medieval Persian physician Avicenna developed the distillation techniques for extracting these delicate, readily evaporating oils from plants. Avicenna's discoveries have stood the test of time. For Nature's Alchemy oils, we are committed to using only steam distillation or cold pressing. Our high-quality Pure Essential Oils are scientifically tested for purity and contain no chemical solvents or added alcohol.

WHAT IS AROMATHERAPY?

Aromatherapy is the skilled use of plant oil extracts to bring about specific feelings and moods through fragrance. The plant oils work in harmony with the body and have a remarkable ability to affect a person's well-being, as well as creating an uplifting environment.

WHAT ARE SKIN CARE OILS & BASE PRODUCTS?

Skin care oils are plant or botanical based oils. They are considered carrier oils because they "carry" the oil onto the skin. Skin care oils are used to dilute essential oils to create aromatherapy skin treatments or massage oils. The Nature's Alchemy Carrier Oil line includes Sweet Almond Oil, Apricot Kernel Oil, Avocado Oil, Grapeseed Oil, Hemp Seed Oil, Jojoba Oil, Olive Oil, and Sesame Oil.

Other base products would include any unscented products such as bath oil, shampoo, hand and body lotions, bath salts, massage lotions, and shower gels.

CARING FOR ESSENTIAL OILS

Most essential oils will last for years if properly stored. However, exposure to air (oxidation) and excess heat can cause a decline in the essential oil's aroma and effectiveness. Always store essential oils and blends in dark glass bottles with tight fitting caps. Store in a cool, dark place.

ESSENTIAL OIL SAFETY & WARNINGS

We hope you enjoy the benefits of our pure essential oils. Since essential oils are highly concentrated, a little goes a long way. They should always be used with care, in small quantities, and should never be used full strength on the skin. Dilute and perform a patch test prior to use. Educate yourself about the properties and uses of essential oils. See warning statements on individual essential oil labels. Consult a knowledgeable reference for indications and contraindications before use. If you are uncertain, it is always advisable to use a smaller amount or seek advice from a knowledgeable professional. Consult your healthcare practitioner prior to use if you are pregnant, nursing, suffering from any medical conditions, or on medications. In the interest of safety, please do not take essential oils internally or use essential oils on children under six years of age without the advice of a healthcare professional. Please keep all essential oils out of the reach of children.

Suggested Uses

Aromatherapy

Fragrance can be a wonderful aid in reducing stress by creating a warm, relaxing atmosphere, and by reminding you of positive memories and experiences that bring joy, feelings of goodwill, and open-heartedness.

Body Care

Personalize your favorite unscented lotions, bath oils, creams, and hair care products by mixing in a touch of essential oil. Unwind with a spa-like scented bath by adding a few drops of essential oil to your bath water. Give your hair and scalp a refreshing conditioning treatment by placing a few drops of rosemary or lavender oil directly on your hairbrush.

Crafts

Create a festive mood around the holidays or a sweetly scented mood for spring by “decorating” your home with the fragrance of essential oils. Potpourri, incense, candles, and herbal fragrance pillows make unique, personalized gifts. Include a small bottle of essential oil with your potpourri gift, so the recipient can refresh the mixture throughout the year.

Environmental Fragrance

Bring your favorite essential oils into your home and cover-up offensive or musty odors in any room by using diffusers. This same technique can bring a refreshing reminder of home into a hotel room.

Facial Steam

Steaming hot water with a few drops of a soothing oil, like chamomile, can be a wonderfully relaxing way to open the pores before a facial treatment. After adding the oil to a steaming bowl of water, drape a towel over your head and allow the steam to open pores for several minutes. Take care not to make the water too hot, and keep your face at least eight inches from the steaming water.

Massage

Enhance the naturally sensuous experience of a massage by adding a few drops of your favorite essential oil to an unscented massage oil. With the appropriate essential oil, your massage can be relaxing, muscle-soothing, or energizing.

Personal Fragrance

Make your own custom-blended perfume oil by blending a few drops each of your favorite essential oils with a high-quality skin care oil. Perfume oils are very concentrated and long-lasting; for a less concentrated, lighter scent, make your own perfume by blending essential oils with a pure vegetable-source alcohol.

PURITY, QUALITY & ORIGINS

All of our essential oils and carrier oils are pure oils sourced from countries all around the world. We require our oil suppliers to verify their testing methods and supply quality analysis on each oil.

The standards used in identifying and certifying essential oils are the C.A.S. Number, the Specific Gravity of an oil, and the Certificates of Analysis. We may also at times request Gas Chromatograph Scans. Because we buy oils that have either been cold pressed or steam distilled, we do not have the issue of dealing with solvents in the oils we supply.

The C.A.S. Number is an international Chemical Abstracts Service number which is assigned to all essential oils. Each number identifies the essential oil of a specific plant which corresponds to the botanical name listed.

The Specific Gravity of an essential oil is a measurement of the weight ratio of each oil to water (which has a specific gravity of 1.0). This measurement is one of the main criteria used in verifying the purity of an essential oil.

A Certificate of Analysis is documentation on the physical properties of each batch of essential oil we utilize. The certificate is generated for each batch of oil.

Gas Chromatograph Scans verify the chemical constituents of the essential oils. These sensitive scans will detect the presence of any solvents that may have been used in the extraction process.

The Country of Origin may vary from time to time. A batch may not match our quality standards for various reasons and we will obtain oils from other countries. We can supply current Country of Origin information if requested.
