TABLES

Here at Wood Metal And Beyond, we believe no quality wood should go to waste – even fallen trees. This is why we strive to make full use of reclaimed wood that would otherwise be cast aside, creating truly bespoke tables guaranteed to make a striking statement.

With each tree-trunk slab we use retaining its original live edge, any table handcrafted by us will be bursting with nature-inspired character. And to ensure each table stands the test of time, we pay careful attention to preserve the original aesthetic of the live edge sections of our slabs.

Including a variety of solid hardwoods such as Ash, Maple and Black Walnut, we typically allow our slabs to air dry for at least 30 months to ensure maximum quality. We will then place them into a kiln for at least another year, guaranteeing full solidity and no risk of movement once the table has been crafted. At least 5 finishing coats will be applied to secure premium longevity and protection, and we provide either matte, gloss or semi-gloss finishes for you to choose from – with each table complete with U-shaped legs in raw steel or flat black. We also offer a variety of custom table bases to choose from

With hundreds of character-filled live edge slabs in stock for you to choose from, we offer both single slabs as well as book matched sets. Each slab picture will be provided with a quote based on your desired specifications, allowing you to choose the best option for your space. We also provide a free consultation service with top Chicago-based interior designers, giving you the opportunity to discuss your requirements in further detail.
