

LANCE SELGO/UNIQUE EXPOSURE PHOTOGRAPHY

LIBBY LANGDON'S
RELAXED, EVERYDAY
STYLE SHOWS IN HER
LIGHTING COLLECTION
FOR CRYSTORAMA

LIGHT IT UP

TEXT BY SARA PHILIPS

Designer and TV personality Libby Langdon has imbued her new lighting collections for Crystorama with the same breezy elegance she brings to her famous home makeovers. Unfussy yet full of character, the pieces in The Devon, The Elliot and Hillcrest collections are a study in clean lines with a glamorous twist. The Devon, Langdon says, “offers a livable look that is chic, stylish and understated in just the right way.” The Elliot is her modern take on a crystal chandelier, and Hillcrest is like a piece of jewelry for the home. Enhancing any space, the fixtures are instant classics. libbylangdon.com

ABOVE: The Elliot collection features a series of glass rods and polished nickel frames. “The filtered light bounces between the glass rods and gives off a beautiful glow,” Langdon says.

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: Libby Langdon lighting in an environment designed by Jessica Koltun Home and built by Olerio Homes; a pendant from The Devon collection; Libby Langdon is known for her collections of branded home furnishings and products.

