Discover the rich history of Port Arthur's deluxe movie theatre, designed by architect, Jay Isadore English, which began construction in 1947 and opened its doors in December 1948. The theatre proudly co-hosted the 1963 world premiere of Walt Disney's 'The Incredible Journey', based on the classic novel by Port Arthur resident, Sheila Burnford. Today, the theatre maintains its original balcony layout, seating, and projector, offering a glimpse into its timeless charm and cinematic legacy.
