PARTIES &
PRIVATE HIRE

A bit of History

Originally built in 1904 as a music dance hall. Bush Hall has enjoyed an interesting and varied past. A dance hall up until WW11, when it became a British Restaurant (soup kitchen) until the end of rationing, then a Bingo Hall and day time music rehearsal space in the 50's/60's for the likes of The Who, Adam Faith and Cliff Richard, and then a snooker & social club in the 80's/90's. In 2001, Bush Hall was restored to its former musical past by the current owners, Charlie & Emma Raworth, and has become a renowned music & events venue over the last 20 years.

Let the Planning Begin ...

Bush Hall lends itself as the most perfect party venue. Whether you want the elegance of the old Edwardian dance hall or the rock n roll of the music venue or a great mixture of both. Stand up or sit down (or both), it is definitely outstanding. Our team will create the ideal party vibe which suits what you want, whether that is simply cool & relaxed or elaborate and themed, our dedicated and creative crew make every event as special and unique as they can.

We have Bush Hall kitchens next door, where specialised chefs can cater for what you want whether that be canapes or sit down banqueting menus or stylised buffets, like funky street food offerings. We make it as bespoke as you want.

Our venue hold a party for up to 360 people or a sit down banquet up to 180 guests. We don't like to go below 70 people for parties for the entirety of Bush Hall. For smaller parties up to 60, we can offer our upstairs terrace & bars.
