The SIL founder Natalie Bloomingdale advocates for slow fashion through her e-commerce destination by championing small businesses—and a unique sense of style. Hot on the heels of her recently unveiled Aspen capsule collection (thesishop.com/collections/aspen-collection), we asked the style setter to share her seasonal selects.

What are some of your favorite items in the collection for summer in Aspen? Since Aspen can be nippy in the evenings, our Buru swing coats are the perfect weight and easy to layer.

What are your other summer essentials? Turquoise! Our Iradj Moini earrings are made in the USA. I love wearing my turquoise in Aspen... and drooling over the vintage turquoise at Kemo Sabe and Mavericks of Aspen.

What other brand news can we buzz for the year ahead? We have a big collaboration with The Beverly Hills Hotel in September! I heard JSX will have direct flights from KIL to Burbank.

What are your Summer fashion essentials? Our La Vie Style House caftan is just as chic as a coverup or cocktail party number! It's easy to pack and versatile. I live in hats in the summer - we have a new visor from Cappello, a hat brand based in Texas.

What do you use for Summer skincare? Joanna Czech came out with a kit with seven essentials- everything to combat summer elements. Its pouch is cinched with a belt that looks like that of an airplane.

Any fitness or wellness resources you love for summer in Aspen? The best thing you can do in Aspen for fitness in the summertime is hike Aspen Mountain and ride the gondola down. The champagne tastes crisper up there too!

Summer vacation spot? Aspen is hard to beat, but Montana is beautiful in the summer.

What are your other local loves? I am very loyal to Hotel Jerome. I think it's Aspen's living room. Las Montañas has the best chips and queso. I fell in love with a diamond ring at Rachel Lynn Chicago on Mill Street!

I love what Sarah Calodney is doing in the art space, showcasing unfamiliar artists and giving them a platform. ◦
