

Can you spot all the different shapes in our angel?
How many are there of each one?

Can you work out these simple addition and subtraction problems?

Two angels plus one angel equals an empty space for the answer.

Three angels minus two angels equals an empty space for the answer.

Four angels plus two angels equals an empty space for the answer.

Four angels minus two angels equals an empty space for the answer.

Five angels plus three angels equals an empty space for the answer.

Five angels minus one angel equals an empty space for the answer.

Design an angel

Have a look at the angels we've designed – can you design an angel of your own using shapes on the computer, or using pattern block shapes?

