Please remember to ask the Post Office for your proof of posting certificate and retain it for your reference. The Post Office will stamp this and supply a tracking reference number to prove the item(s) have been returned. Without this we cannot refund any money if we do not receive the returned items.

The refund will be processed once your goods are received into our warehouse. Please note that it may take up to 7 working days for the refunds to show in your account.

For further questions just write a mail to the above-noted mail address and we will get back to you as soon as possible!
