

Greetings, Partners and Friends!

Weeks ago, as I sat resting with the Eternal Spirit of God, our Kind Lord was most gracious to bestow another astonishing vision from our Blessed Master' Crucifixion. In this most dramatic and holy vision, I beheld the blessed Hands of Christ, the Son of God, which were most brutally wounded from His Crucifixion over two-thousand years ago.

Might you say, what hast Christ purposed for us to know from this vision of our Blessed One? I may answer, perhaps, the vision was granted to encourageth us of His blessed appearances; and that Christ remaineth a very present help in our times of sufferin gs.

May we remembereth our Beloved Christ visited His grief-stricken Disciples after His Crucifixion? For in the sacred passage recorded in John 20:25, we read of a most holy encounter with Christ and His grieving Disciple, Thomas. In reading this Scripture, we continueth to behold the exemplary character of the Eternal Son of God, who surely astonishes us as Christ purposed to fellowship with His concerned Disciples after His most triumphant Resurrection.

In this observance of Christ with His apostles recorded in John, Chapter 20, our Lord granted His Friends, the blessedness to becometh eyewitnesses of His Resurrection. I might say, we may certainly also learn that Christ in this present-day continue to remaineth a conversational Lord; who in His meekness taketh pleasure in proving His word.

Now, let us taketh a moment to remembereth the passages in John 20:24-25. May we, friends? For in these passages Thomas, stunningly in enduring the spirit of doubt, and skepticism adamantly declared to His brethren that he would not believe Christ had risen as they had testified; unless the Son of God shewed Himself before Thomas bearing evidence of the His Crucifixion.

How magnificently glorious our Risen Christ answered this daring declaration of His Disciple! For in the splendor of Glory, and with treatment of His grace, our Holy Majesty shewed Himself hindmost to the Disciple, Thomas. In it, our Holy Christ revealed the blessed evidence of His Resurrected Body bearing His scarred Hands and Side.

And so, dearest friends, as I considereth it, it is fundamentally the wounded Hands of our Blessed One whereby shall encourageth and strengthen us as we serve Him in this new year of two-thousand and twenty-five. For His Glory, might we boldly taketh faith-filled steps into our respective destinies, purpose to fulfill Christ' will in our lives, and be most encouraged that He appears even today.

Surely, our Holy Lord cometh with clouds descending!

Because of the Cross,

Apostle Tonya
