

Victoria Prince shares the future of where she wishes her business will be in the coming years. "In the next five years, my business will be an award-winning aesthetic studio for women of color with two locations. One being a flagship, and the other as an express location in another major city. Women of color, primarily in Chicago, Illinois do not have a place that thoroughly educates them or offers services and products tailored to their skin."

VICTORIA PRINCE, M.E., owner of Tori Prince Beauty