ABOUT INDI

A Theia floor lamp with the same beautiful shade is available. It is an excitingly designed floor lamp focusing on the combination of both light and shadows. The floor lamp has two hemispheres, one provides shade, and the other provides a subtle, indirect light. You can rotate the lampshade around the central axis to easily control the light's direction, which makes it suitable as a reading lamp in the living room, and it can stand perfectly in the bedroom.
