WHERE YOU NEED IT MOST

Did you know that 50% of your body weight rests in the middle of your mattress while you sleep?

Our exclusive technique reinforces the centre third of the mattress to provide extra support for your back and core.

Only Sealy® has Posturepedic® support for your back and core. It's targeted to the individual areas of your body that need it most so your body stays level while you sleep.

Built to deliver middle-of-the-mattress support and pressure relief—for truly best-of-the-best sleep.
