Grape Living Consigns furniture & home decor in "Like New" condition. If any of the consigned items are of considerable value, we suggest they be covered by your homeowners, insurance policy. Grape Living is not responsible for loss due to damage, theft, vandalism, fire or water damage, or an "act of God".

Our pricing is based on the original cost if known, current market supply & demand. It is in your best interest, as well as ours, to get the highest possible price. The final decision on pricing of any consigned item will be determined by Grape Living. If an item needs cleaning or repair, the consigner may be charged to do so.

When an item is sold within the first 90 days you will be paid for 50% of the selling price. After 90 days, under 180 days, we may discount the item & you will be paid for 40% of the selling price. You will be paid the following month of the sale or you may opt for store credit with a 10% bonus payback. After six months, if an item remains unsold, it becomes property of Grape Living & we have the right to donate said item unless other arrangements are made. It is the consigners responsibility to let Grape Living know if he/she will be taking back any items prior to the six-month.

Grape Living promises you that we will do our very best to sell your items quickly and for the best possible price and that we will always be straightforward and honest with you.
