ABOUT ME:

Alot of people dont know this, but I started travelling for work. My love of travel grew roots on the ocean-going liners I have lived and worked on – 1,100-foot vessels that have propelled me from country to country in the Middle East, Asia, and Europe. I have circumnavigated the globe at the helm of the world’s largest gas tankers as a merchant mariner and sailor. Being a woman in a male-dominated industry, I am no stranger to taking on challenges and breaking down barriers.

What’s really important to me now is giving people who want to get their feet wet in the traveling pool the resources they need to do that.

I am an adventure seeker, foodie and island girl that loves adventure and the soft life. Whether its hiking Machu Picchu, sandboarding in Dubai or ziplining in Puerto Rico, you name it and I will try it!

I cant wait to show you this gem of a country with hopes that you fall in love with it as much as I have.

What to expect:

Get ready for the trip of a lifetime!

Weather: The weather during this time of year in Morocco is warming up, and the nights will be chilly. Although we can expect sunny weather and warm days, pack a jacket for evening times.

Culture: The Moroccan Culture is rich and vibrant. Moroccan people are very proud of who they are and speak about their country with great passion. The Moroccan culture has made tremendous contributions to art, philosophy and architecture. Avoid conversations with locals on politics and the economy, where possible, and do some reading up on this great country before the trip starts!

Group Travel: Group travel can be fun and rewarding. However we stress the importance of being patient and courteous to others on the trip and remembering that everyone comes from various backgrounds and have had various experiences. We want this to be a rewarding and enriching trip for all.

Air Travel: Air travel can be unpredictable sometimes. Whether its flight delays, flight cancellations or luggage issues. Please remember that we are here to help but you must do your part! This can entail packing as lightly as possible, adhering to luggage guidelines from the airline, checking in online in advance and arriving well in advance for scheduled flights. Let's kick off this journey on a high note! And of course any issues you have along the way we are here to help!

How to pack: We will forward you a packing list closer to your trip date.
