Rays of our sun, refracted and dissipated in the vast expanse of our skies, forms ethereal colour spectrums as they dance with the clouds. When the light pierces through and touches the seas, the rippling sparkles of shine reflected on the water is truly a sight to behold. This exquisite visual display, in all its lightness and serenity, became the defining mood and feel for our spring-summer collection.

Our story for the season begins with our selection of delicate fabrics, fine lurex knits and light zari-viscose blends and chiffons, all having a wonderfully sophisticated sheen, that we hand-dyed in various soft spectrums of the sky. We married these fabrics with our signature hand-embroideries but in very considered ways, our TPU yarn embroideries were re-imagined as light fringes, while our dimensional sequin work took form of light tassels, and our metallic Zari yarns were Ari embroidered in minimal ways on the garments to maintain the lightness of the pieces.

The silhouettes of our pieces too were crafted to recreate the airiness and expansiveness of our mood, characterised with long drapes, soft trains and new elongated bias cuts that organically blend with the form and movement of our hand-embroideries.

Ultimately, our endeavour this season was to create a summer collection that made our customer feel light and elegant, without compromising any of the innovative and luxurious elements that have become synonymous with our brand. Here's to a summer with the AKHL woman basking in the summer sun, touched by the soft breeze, looking effortlessly natural and radiant.
