HI THERE!
I'M SO HAPPY YOU
DECIDED TO GET THESE

30 Days of Art Prompts

These prompts are yours to do with as you wish, so feel free to use them to get your creative juices flowing, start a month-long challenge, or go through them at random to spark a new idea!

With art prompts, I love challenging myself to experiment with different styles and mediums. It's a chance to try something new without worrying!

You could make these sketches a 5-minute practice while you're sipping your morning tea, or a thirty-minute painting to refresh your mind during the middle of the day.

Feel free to print this packet to jot down all of your ideas in it, or grab a new sketchbook to keep your illustrations in one place.

Whatever way you use them, it's all up to you.

Happy art-ing!
Angela
