

anindilyakwa arts

bush dye guide.

Bush dyed textiles are hand crafted in communities across the Groote Eylandt Archipelago.

Using a variety of endemic roots, leaves, bark and berries, artists create unique textiles, reflecting the colours, textures, and landscape of Anindilyakwa Country.

Each garment is hand crafted in communities across Groote Eylandt Archipelago.

“I feel happy and proud. It comes from our Country. I like it and it’s good to see people like it too.”

~ Annabell Amagula

how to care for your bush dye.

Each piece is delicately hand dyed . Therefore colour may change over time.

- cold hand wash only
- no tumble dry
- no harsh chemicals