

WEDNESDAY LESSONS 2/1/23

Kimoto: Traditional Brewing

Honda Shoten Taturiki Kimoto Tokubetsu Junmai $24 w/ class credit ($29)

- Hyogo Prefecture
- Very terroir-focused brewery, intimately involved in rice growing and soil research.
- 65% polish organic “Toku A” Hyogo Yamadanishiki rice from Miki & Kato cities, Yeast #9, acidity 1.7, 16% ABV, muroka (unfined) cool fermentation and tsuki-haze koji, aged 1 year at cold temperatures.
- Top Gold Honor in the National Warm Sake Contest (pre 2012)

Kodama Jozo Taiheizan Junmai $27 w/ class credit ($32)

- Akita Prefecture
- Served warm. “Akita Kimoto Method”
- 59% polish Miyamanishiki (local), acidity 1.7, SMV +3, proprietary yeast (AK-1 derivative)

Kato Sake Works Kimoto Junmai $37 w/ class credit ($42)

- Brooklyn, NYC
- Similar to Akita Kimoto Method (power drill)
- 60% polish Calrose (CA), yeast #9

 BONUS: $10

Akishika Omachi Junmai MNG “Black Moheji” $98 w/ class credit ($108)

- Osaka Prefecture
- Ikkan-zukuri (seed to sake), traditional kimoto method
- 60% polish, biodynamic single-paddy Omachi from Uemura field, traditional kimoto method, tank aged for 4 years prior to release.

> All kimoto sake in the shop is discounted with today’s class

♥ 720ml bottles: $5-10 off with tasting
♥ Total discount= up to tasting fee

♥ 300ml bottles: $2.50 off
♥ F&B employee? Tell me when you check out!