DART Standard Terms & Conditions of Sale

Applicability: These terms and conditions ("Terms") are the only terms that govern the sale of goods or services by DART Aerospace Company or any of its affiliate or subsidiary managed by DART Aerospace Company ("DART") to or on behalf of the buyer ("Buyer").

Order of Precedence: Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if a contract signed by both parties exists covering the sale of goods or performance of services covered hereby, the terms and conditions of that contract will prevail to the extent inconsistent with these Terms. Any quotation or confirmation of order accompanying these Terms, or into which these Terms are incorporated by reference (collectively, the "Agreement"), comprises the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous understandings, representations, warranties, and communications, written or oral. These Terms prevail over any of Buyer's general terms and conditions of purchase regardless of whether or when Buyer submitted its order or such terms. Fulfillment of Buyer's order does not constitute acceptance of Buyer's terms and conditions and does not serve to modify or amend these Terms. In the event that the Buyer's order includes terms and conditions that conflict with such Terms, such Terms shall prevail and take precedence.

Delivery and Shipping Terms: Delivery dates are quoted in good faith on a best effort basis but are not guaranteed. DART does not assume any risk or liability for any loss (including loss of revenue or loss of profit), costs, damages, charges expenses caused directly or indirectly by any delay in delivery for any reason including, but not limited to, any delay or nonfulfillment of contract due to acts of God, war, strike, breakdown, fires, governmental order or causes beyond the DART's control nor will any delay entitle the Buyer to terminate or rescind the order, purchase order, and/or contract, or delay any of Buyer's obligations arising prior to such delay.

DART does not accept any clauses imposing penalties for late or early delivery. DART Aerospace will make reasonable efforts to provide goods with the longest practical shelf life based on current supply chain constraints.

Goods or services will be delivered or performed within DART's lead time after receipt of the Buyer's order. DART is not liable for any delays, loss, or damage in transit. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, DART shall make the goods accessible EXW (Incoterms 2020) DART's facility (the "EXW Point") using DART's standard methods for packaging. The Buyer shall take delivery of the goods promptly after receiving notice that the goods have been made accessible by the DART. The Buyer shall be responsible for export procedures and cost, transport to main carrier if applicable, loading the goods, insurance, and delivery costs, import procedures and cost, and delivery from the EXW Point to the final destination. DART may, in its sole discretion, without liability or penalty, make partial and/or early shipments of goods to Buyer. Each shipment will constitute a separate sale and Buyer shall pay for goods shipped, whether such shipment is in whole or partial or early fulfillment of Buyer's order. If for any reason Buyer fails to accept delivery of goods on the delivery date or if DART is unable to deliver goods on the designated delivery date because Buyer has not provided appropriate instructions, documents, licenses or authorizations: (i) risk of loss to the goods shall pass to Buyer; (ii) the goods shall be deemed to have been delivered; and (iii) DART, at its option, may store the goods until Buyer picks them up and Buyer shall be liable for all related costs and expenses (including, without limitation, storage and insurance).

DART reserves the right to correct clerical errors and omissions without incurring any liability.

Title and Risk of Loss: Title and risk of loss passes to Buyer at the EXW Point. As security for payment of the Price, Buyer grants to DART a purchase money security interest in and to all right, title, and interest of Buyer in, to and under the goods, wherever located, whether now existing or hereafter arising or acquired from time to time, and in all accessions thereto and replacements or modifications thereof, as well as all proceeds (including insurance proceeds) of the foregoing.

Inspection and Rejection of Nonconforming Goods: Buyer shall inspect the goods within 5 calendar days of receipt ("Inspection Period"). The Buyer will be deemed to have accepted the goods unless it notifies DART in writing of any Nonconforming Goods during the Inspection Period and furnishes documentation reasonably required by DART. "Nonconforming Goods" means only: (i) goods shipped are different than identified in Buyer's order; or (ii) the goods' label or packaging incorrectly identifies its contents.

- a) If Buyer timely notifies DART of any Nonconforming Goods, DART shall, in its sole discretion, (i) replace such Nonconforming Goods with conforming goods or (ii) credit or refund the Price for Nonconforming Goods, together with any reasonable shipping and handling expenses incurred by Buyer in connection therewith. Under no circumstance should any shipment ever be made from the Buyer to DART's facility without first obtaining permission from DART in the form of a Return Material Authorization (RMA) issued by DART's Customer Support Department. All RMA returns must be properly marked with RMA number before shipment to DART's facility. All returns of Nonconforming Goods are subject to inspection by DART to determine if goods are in their original, new, as shipped condition. If DART exercises its option to replace Nonconforming Goods, DART shall, after receiving Nonconforming Goods from Buyer, make available to the Buyer the replaced goods at the EXW Point.
- b) The remedies are Buyer's exclusive remedies for the delivery of Nonconforming Goods.

Returns: Buyer has no right to return goods purchased under the Agreement without prior written approval from DART. DART reserves the right to refuse the return of goods.

Price: Buyer shall purchase the goods or services from DART at the prices (the "Price") set forth in DART's quoted price or published price list in force as of the date that DART accepts Buyer's order or as otherwise agreed by the parties. DART's price list is subject to change at any time. All Prices are exclusive of sales, use and excise taxes and any other similar taxes, duties and charges of any kind imposed by a governmental entity on amounts payable by Buyer. Buyer is responsible for all such charges, costs and taxes, but Buyer is not responsible for taxes imposed on or with respect to DART's income, revenues, receipts, personnel or real or personal property or other assets.

Cancellation and Change: The sale is not subject to cancellation, change, reduction in amount, or suspension or deferment of deliveries, except with the written consent of DART and upon terms which indemnify DART against loss. A cancellation charge up to 100% may apply for orders cancelled for goods that are due for shipment within 120 days of the cancellation date. When due for shipment outside of 120 days, DART will charge a percentage of the price representative of the work in progress (WIP) at the cancellation date. A request for changes in delivery schedule and/or quantity ordered within 120 business days of the original scheduled delivery date requires written approval of DART. Such changes may be subject to equitable price adjustment.

Payment Terms: Unless the parties otherwise agree, Buyer shall pay all invoiced amounts to DART based on the agreed upon payment terms outlined on the quote/ at the time of quote ("Payment Terms"). The extension of credit to Buyer shall be subject to change by DART at any time. Unless the parties otherwise agree, Buyer shall make all payments by wire or check, in the currency stated on the invoice. A payment is considered overdue, the day after the payment due date per the Payment Terms. The Buyer shall pay interest on overdue payments at the lesser of 1.5% per month or the highest rate permissible under applicable law, calculated daily and compounded monthly. Buyer shall reimburse DART for costs incurred in collecting overdue payments, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees. In addition to all other remedies available under these Terms or at law (which DART does not waive by the exercise of any rights hereunder), DART is entitled to suspend the delivery of any goods or services if Buyer fails to pay any amounts when due hereunder. In the event of Buyer being overdue on multiple payments, DART reserves the right to allocate any Buyer's payment to the most overdue payment first. Buyer shall not withhold payment of any amounts due by reason of any set-off of a claim or dispute with DART, whether relating to DART's breach, bankruptcy or otherwise.

Intellectual Property: Any intellectual property rights (including, without limitation, patents, designs, trademarks, service marks, and copyrights and any applications for any of the preceding) in the goods or in the tools, designs, drawings, or production or design data owned or created by the DART in the course of fulfilling Buyer's orders or otherwise used in the manufacture, maintenance or repair of the goods shall remain the DART's property unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the DART. The DART grants, on full payment for the goods the non-exclusive right for the Buyer and bona fide purchasers from the Buyer to use, for the operation of the goods for their intended purpose only, (a) any software supplied with, or embedded in, the goods, and (b) technical manuals and instructions relating to the operation and maintenance of the goods. The Buyer hereby grants to DART a non-assignable non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use any intellectual property rights (including, without limitation, patents, designs, trademarks, service marks and copyrights and any applications for any of the preceding) owned or controlled by the Buyer to the extent necessary for the DART to supply the goods. Except as expressly stated herein, nothing in the contract shall be deemed to have given the Buyer a license or any other right to use any of the intellectual property rights of the DART unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the DART.

Restrictions on Use of DART's Intellectual Property and Proprietary Information

- a) Notwithstanding any other provision herein, Buyer may not use DART's Proprietary Information directly or indirectly to compete with DART's or in any manner to obtain a competitive advantage over DART; and
- b) Buyer may not sell, reverse engineer, or copy any of the DART's product or parts, or assist any third party in the reverse engineering or copying of any of the DART product or parts, to make a competitive product or parts.

Limited Warranty: Any goods or services provided under those Terms are subject to the Limited Warranty on Products and Services attached hereinbelow.
