

Questions to add a further challenge:

Which number is the smallest/largest?

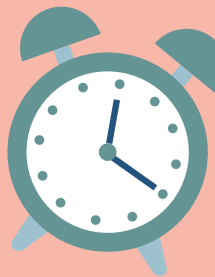

How many odd/even numbers do you have?

How many tens and ones does that number have?

Can you add 2 of the numbers together to make a number over 20?

If you double the number of children in your class is it larger than 50?

