

Modern Slavery Statement

COH Baines is committed to ensuring no slavery or human trafficking exists within any part of our business or supply chains. We endeavor to achieve this through our policies/procedures and supplier due diligence processes.

We set out the following points when it comes to slavery and or human trafficking:

- Working conditions are safe and hygienic.
- Child labour should not be used in any capacity.
- Minimum and living wages are paid.
- Hours of work are not excessive.
- We recognise workers; union rights and freedom of expression.
- Discrimination in any form is not practiced. (Equality Act 2010)
- No inhumane or harsh treatment is permitted.

We are committed to ensuring all our processes fall into line with the Modern Slavery Act of 2015.

Dean Wealleans
Managing Director