

Uniqfind

GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERNSHIP (3 months, Toronto)

We're ISO a local, passionate graphic design aficionado who deeply understands trends and how to bring them to life, digitally. Working collaboratively with founders and marketing personnel, intern will reinforce brand identity and cultivate desire by crafting advertising collateral and marketing material, website banners, sliders and block imagery.

Who are we?

We're Uniqfind. We believe in pairing utility with design. We support and explore art as a means of inspiring your day-to-day backdrop. We aim to provide the simple gesture of wrapping your tech in contemporary designs to elevate your life and surrounding spaces. We support the story of taking something monotonous and making it Uniq. We believe in building a community where inspired individuals use their tech devices as an extension of their personal style.

We're looking for a like-minded individual who is inspired by what we do, and is as excited as we are about trends, culture, photography, fashion, tech and how they are work together.

You're our person if you're:

- Immensely creative
- An ardent trend predictor
- A passionate collaborator
- Steadfast to your craft
- Committed to our goals + mission
- Hungry for growth + opportunity

Duties will include:

- Collaboratively supporting the marketing team
- Designing high-calibre website assets
- Crafting desirable, highly-sharable packaging
- Generating eye-catching imagery for social media
- Constructing stand-out visuals for marketing + advertising
- Build appealing short-length promotional videos + GIFs
- Receiving + implementing creative direction while contributing ideas
- Stalking market trends pertaining to Uniqfind and design

Desired experience includes:

- At least 2 yrs. experience in graphic design
- Proficient with Photoshop, Illustrator + InDesign
- Ability to independently problem solve
- Exhibits strong initiative and work ethic

Uniqfind

- Proven writing and communication skills

What we can offer:

- A unique, fulfilling experience working with a successful Toronto start-up
- Hands-on, fully immersive experience within your field of focus
- The opportunity to work alongside a recognized group of people
- Flexible work hours embracing work/life balance
- The potential to become a permanent member of our team

How to apply?

Please email your resume and cover letter outlining your interest and passions pertaining to this opportunity to emily@uniqfind.com.