

TALENTED HONG KONG JEWELLERY DESIGNERS YOU SIMPLY MUST CHECK OUT

If you're looking for a unique piece of jewellery that stands out among bigger names such as Cartier and Tiffany & Co. These local Hong Kong jewellery designers offer dazzling elegant pieces that are as unique as its wearer.

HETING Jewellery by Carina Wong

Carina Wong showcases brilliancy and versatility of thoughtful designs that bring its wearers closer to nature through its earthy-inspired aesthetics. Crafted with precious metals, gemstones to jadeite and intricately carved pearls in an artful form of texture and shapes that resemble nature's captivating landscape.

L'Dezen by Payal Shah

This brand is no stranger to the red carpet, having dressed several A-listing celebrities from Hollywood. Payal Shah puts a fun and funky twist to haute jollier, suggesting a much needed creative spark in modern sophistication with sliced stones that are both elegant and vibrantly quirky.

Sarah Zhuang

Functional elegance at its finest, Sarah Zhuang's design offers contemporary women versatile and multifunctional pieces that are crafted to mix and match its collection of 18K gold and precious gemstones, each piece is designed to be worn in multiple styles to accommodate any modern women's dynamic lifestyle.

Midoti by Sharong Cheung

Sculptural and decorative wearable art that evoke delicate, ethereal and minimalist aesthetic is designer Sharong Cheung's vision. Crafting delicate yet detailed fine jewellery using high-tech weaving technology that make threading signature motifs such as delicate knots with malleable soft metals dazzlingly artistic.

PHERES by Narcisa Pheres

Not a stranger to the spotlight, Narcisa Pheres's designs has had its fair share of red carpet features. Famed for being highly exclusive, this decade-old Italian fashion house puts a close focus on bold statement pieces of luxury that not only embody but elevate elegance beyond the setting and mould of contemporary styles

Tayma Fine Jewellery by Tayma Page Allies

Living in colour since 2005 in the heart of Central's Lan Kwai Fong, Tayma Page Allies' offers nothing less than an exclusive bespoke experience and carefully thought-out designs that cater to its wearer's unique taste and preference. Hand picking from her own collection of gems, from Paraiba to rare black opals, her fun, vibrant and bedazzling designs is one for the certainly fits a confidently bold and fun-loving woman.