NATURAL WORLD

Just when I think I've seen everything, another fabulous jewel turns up and I simply can't resist it. Having seen thousands of gemstones over the years, there has to be something special about the gem for me to fall in love: a beautiful colour, a special cut, an unusual size, a rare piece, and when I find such a gem, it's very hard for me to let it go!

When you think that gemstones are created under intense heat and pressure over millions of years, they truly are gifts from the Earth. Natural crystals are a joy for the eye to behold and for the hand to hold.

The GEMALISTA Collection is a treasure trove of my favourite stones collected over the years, which I'm now offering to clients, with advice on gemstone investment portfolios and legacy gems to pass down through the generations. Tangible assets you can actually wear.

Enjoy your enclosed New Year Lai See to spend on a beautiful piece of TAYMA jewellery, and I hope your eye enjoys beholding the colourful creations from the natural world in the 2017 Calendar!

TAYMA GEMALISTA

The heart, soul and inspiration for each piece of TAYMA jewellery starts with the gemstone. For over 25 years Tayma has curated an outstanding gemstone collection which features her personal favourites and many rare gems from old mines. Recently these gemstones have increased in value, as mines have closed, new deposits are yet to be found and coloured gemstones are subject to supply and an ever increasing demand, as more collectors and investors are entering the market.

GEMALISTA is for gem collectors and offers a bespoke service whereby clients select their perfect jewel from the TAYMA vault, followed by a complimentary design consultation, jewellery drawing and quotation. Choosing and falling in love with your coloured gemstone is only the beginning. Interpreting the design in wax or silver, creating then polishing the gold mounting and finally, carefully setting the gemstones: each step is carried out by a dedicated team of expert goldsmiths, gem setters and polishers who work closely with Tayma on each creation.

The Enchanted Forest Cobweb Cuff is featured in it's early incarnation, and is a beautiful mix of paraiba, chrome and indicollite tourmalines, with peridots and garnets set in wax. After perfecting the design, it takes around seven months to create a Cobweb cuff by hand.
