
For Mami Clara,
my source of inspiration.
Until we meet again.
Love, Andy

ANDRÉS BOURNIGAL

A graduate of Parsons School of Design, Andrés Bournigal started his fashion career as an apprentice to designer Naeem Khan in his Manhattan showroom. During his tenure at the fashion house, Andrés worked on the development of Ready to Wear and Bridal gowns for First Ladies, Royalty and celebrities.

After years in the fast paced New York fashion industry, Andrés felt the need to put out his own design message and founded his eponymous label in 2021.

Based in Miami, Florida, Andrés brings the international savoir faire of this city, alongside his sartorial New York City training into his luxury designs with exquisite embroideries and materials sourced from France, Italy, India, Spain and South Korea.

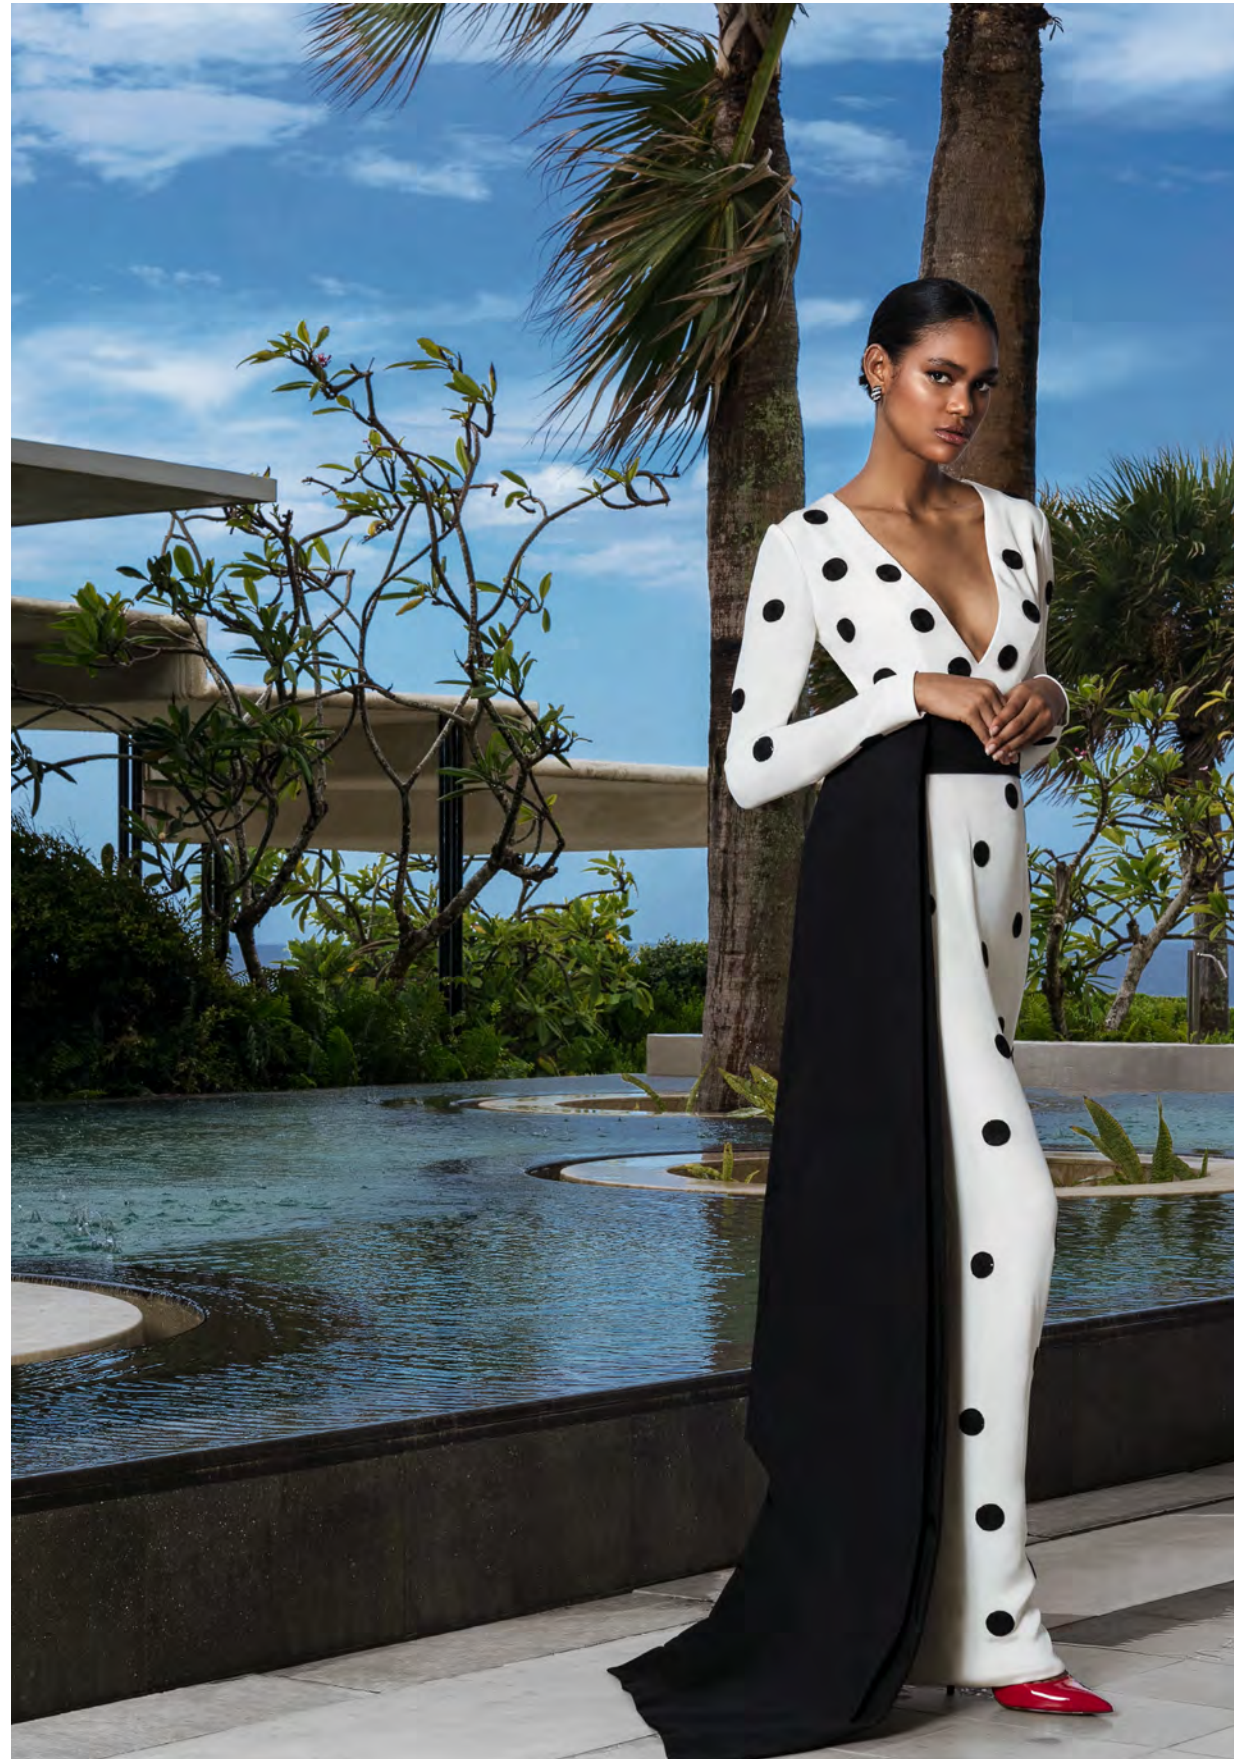

Andrés Bournigal looks to a future of glamour, design and impeccably cut gowns that start developing amongst pastel colored art deco buildings, swaying palm trees and the gorgeous beaches of South Beach, and from there, expand this message to the rest of the world.
