

Jace Banu Modern Slavery Statement

Jace Banu values the rights and dignity of our community above all. We stand behind the fair treatment of our suppliers and believe individuals should be free from slavery of any form.

Modern slavery sees the severe exploitation of people for personal or commercial gain. We have made a commitment to ensure our business and supply chain uphold the standards outlined in our code of conduct abolishing the risks of modern slavery and reflect our core ethos and values. As a contributor of the fashion industry, we acknowledge the impact our industry has had on modern slavery and will continue to connect to our people ensuring their fair treatment and respect, this statement is testament to our ongoing efforts to continue to create an environment that is free from forced labour, child labour or any behaviour that undermines the freedoms and rights of a human being.

We are committed to upholding our suppliers to ensure this statement is upheld to the standards of our code of conduct and continue to operate in an ethically responsible manner.
