

Consignment Agreement

Welcome to Fit For A Queen! We're excited that you want to become a member of our curvy consignment community! Here's how it works:

1. Become a Crown Club Member.

- For your $20 membership fee, you'll receive a consignor account and exclusive Crown Club membership benefits! You may cancel your membership at any time by calling us or sending us an e-mail. Membership fees are nonrefundable.

2. Bring in your curvy clothing, shoes & accessories.

- It is your responsibility to ensure your items are clean, free of defects and in appropriate condition to be placed on the sales floor.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that any designer items are authentic. If "knock-off" designer items are consigned, knowingly or otherwise, your account may be terminated and any balance due immediately forfeited.
- We will review your items and select the items that we'll accept on consignment. Sometimes there will be items that we cannot accept. Please understand that this decision is based on many factors, including current trends, customer preferences, clothing condition and inventory levels. If a defect is discovered after an item has been accepted for consignment, it will be discounted or donated. Unaccepted items left at the store for more than 7 days after notification via e-mail or phone become the property of Fit For A Queen.

3. We will offer accepted items for sale.

- The consignment period is 12 weeks, beginning the day your items are priced and offered for sale in our physical store location and/or online.
- We will determine the selling price for accepted items based on various factors including brand, condition, style and desirability. The selling price will be reduced by 25% after 4 weeks and by 50% after 8 weeks, unless otherwise agreed-upon. Periodic sales discounts may also be offered. The consignment period and markdown schedule may be shortened for holiday-themed items.
- A small buyer's fee is added to the price of all items to cover processing costs. This fee is passed along to the buyer and is not split with the consignor.

- It is your responsibility to track the status/expiration of your consigned items. Fit For a Queen will not notify you upon expiration. If you would like to pick up any unsold items during the consignment period, you may do so by locating them on the sales floor and bringing them to the checkout counter. Any unsold items remaining after the expiration of the 12-week consignment period become the property of Fit For A Queen.
- We will do our best to safeguard your items. However, Fit For A Queen is not responsible for items lost or damaged due to theft, fire or other causes.

4. We will pay you 40% of the final selling price (50% for items priced over $100).

- Stop in any time during normal business hours to receive money owed via cash, check or store credit. We will mail your check to you upon request if your account balance exceeds $25. Balances in accounts that have been inactive for 24 months or more will become property of Fit For A Queen.
